1) K.S.A. section 60-3302 (c) and (d)
Kansas Product Liability Act provides:

(c) "Product liability claim" includes any claim or action brought for harm caused by the manufacture, production, making, construction, fabrication, design, formula, preparation, assembly, installation, testing, warning, instructions, marketing, packaging, storage, or labeling of the relevant product. It includes but is not limited to any action based on, strict liability in tort, negligence, breach of express or implied warranty, breach of or failure to, discharge a duty, to warn or instruct, whether negligent or innocent, misrepresentation, or concealment or nondisclosure whether negligent or innocent or under any other substantive legal theory.

(d) "Harm" includes: (1)
Damage to property: (2)
Personal physical injuries, illness

(2-6)

and death. (3) mental anguish or emotional harm attendant to such personal physical injuries illness or death. The term "harm" does not include direct or consequential economic loss.

The KPLA applies to all product liability claims. Kansas law states how a product can be found defective: (1) a manufacturing defect; (2) a warning defect and (3) a design defect.

CREITMER v. GENERAL MOTORS CORP.,
No. 11-CV-4028-CM/DJW,
2011 WL 2836750
(D. Kan., July 15, 2011) (Marguia J.)
States:

according to the complaint, plaintiff was injured in an accident on September 24, 2009 in her 2006 Chevy Cobalt. Although the complaint is unclear, it appears that the accident was caused by a defective steering motor (which plaintiff alleges was subsequently subject to a recall in March 2010), and that injury was caused by the failure of the airbags to deploy. Apparently GM's Claims Dept.
(3-5)

has been of "no help" to plaintiff...

(ie. document factual of Recall Date)
not issued by ESIS either; constitutes a product liability case of which debtors owe.

In retrospect the Old GM Claims Agent was ESIS who is now the reorganized GM - ESIS. The cause of action is plausible and clear failure to notify plaintiff of safety recall of steering motor. This ignorance is uncalled for and furthermore the judge needs to reconsider the facts of case before ordering an granting of objection to the debtors claim on the year 2007 when purchasing the new 2006 Chevy Cobalt LT Sedan

Sport package, XM satellite radios and touring tires. 11 U.S.C. § 101.

Phone hearing of April 26, 2012, due to interference no hearing was heard by, need transcripts of hearing and Marjorie Ann Creamer, prays that the honorable Judge Rober E. Gerber, United States Bankruptcy Judge sees this as a Debtors liability for recovery to her and that her objection to ~~grant~~^{NOT} this order is plausible as the findings and fact find debtors at fault and set forth by the conclusions of law under the bankruptcy and KPLA acts.
