DECLARATION OF STEVE W. BERMAN

I, Steve W. Berman, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly admitted pro hac vice in this proceeding and am the managing partner of the law firm of Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP.

2. Pursuant to Order No. 8, In re Gen. Motors LLC Ignition Switch Litig., Case No. 14-md-02543-JMF (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (the “MDL Action”), I serve as Plaintiffs’ Co-Lead Counsel with particular responsibility for economic loss claims. I respectfully submit this declaration in support of The Economic Loss Plaintiffs’ Reply in Support of Rule 23(e) Motion (the “Reply”).<sup>1</sup>

3. Except as otherwise stated, all facts set forth in this declaration are based on my personal knowledge and review of relevant documents.

I. Economic Loss Class Claims.

4. The Settlement Agreement resolves issues arising from the proposed class claims of the Ignition Switch and Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs, attached as Exhibits A and B, respectively, to the Notice of Filing of Amended Exhibits to Motion for an Order Granting Authority to File Late Class Proofs of Claim, dated Apr. 25, 2018 [ECF No. 14280].<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Except as otherwise indicated, references to “ECF No. _” are to docket entries in the Bankruptcy Court proceedings: In re Motors Liquidation Co., Case No. 09-50026 (MG).

A. Prospective Class Representatives.

5. The prospective class representatives for the Ignition Switch Plaintiffs are the claimants listed in Section II of the proposed ignition switch class claim. The prospective class representatives for the Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs are the claimants listed in Section II of the proposed non-ignition switch class claim.

B. The Proffered Evidence And The Amount Of The Proposed Class Claims.

6. Counsel for the Ignition Switch and certain Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs provided the GUC Trust with the Updated Economic Loss Plaintiffs' Summary of Support for Claim in the Bankruptcy Court attached hereto as Exhibit A, describing in detail the factual background for the proposed class claims, the alleged viability of the asserted claims and the alleged amount of damages.

7. In addition, counsel for the Ignition Switch and certain Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs provided a report by Stefan Boedeker, an expert on surveys and statistical sampling, analyzing the amount of alleged damages for the proposed class claims based on a conjoint analysis conducted by Mr. Boedeker and the Berkeley Research Group, attached hereto as Exhibit B.

8. Following rulings by Judge Furman in the MDL Action regarding the viability of claims in certain states, counsel for the Ignition Switch and certain Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs provided the GUC Trust with refined estimates of the amount of damages. Counsel started with median estimates of damages per vehicle based on the conjoint analysis, and multiplied that by the number of defective Old GM vehicles in each state without a manifestation requirement. Depending on which estimate was used (i.e., the estimate based on a defect causing physical harm and death, or the estimate based on time-to-recall), the estimated damages could equal or exceed $77 billion. The spreadsheets setting forth the updated estimates are attached hereto as Exhibit C.

II. Personal Injury And Wrongful Death Claims.

9. The Settlement Agreement also resolves issues arising from the claims of the 442 Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs asserting claims or who suffered an injury or death involving an Old GM vehicle subject to Recall Nos. 14v-047, 14v-540, 14v-355, 14v-394, 14v-400, 14v-118, and 14v-153 who are signatories to the Settlement Agreement—439 Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs represented by Andrews Myers, P.C. and 3 Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs represented by Cole Schotz P.C.

10. On February 28, 2019, New GM informed the Court that 254 of the Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs who are signatories to the Settlement Agreement are eligible for various aggregate settlements with New GM. See Letter, dated Feb. 28, 2019 [ECF No. 14444].

11. 549 Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs were signatories to the prior settlement agreement entered into by certain plaintiffs and the GUC Trust on April 24, 2018 (and amended on May 22, 2018)—352 Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs represented by Andrews Myers, P.C. and 197 Pre-Closing Accident Plaintiffs represented by Hilliard Martinez Gonzales, LLP and the Law Offices of Thomas J. Henry.

12. On February 1, 2019, New GM reached an agreement in principle to settle 237 claims of certain plaintiffs represented by Hilliard Martinez Gonzales, LLP and the Law Offices of Thomas J. Henry, including (i) 163 filed both as late claims in this Court and as claims in the MDL court; (ii) 26 pending only as late claims in this Court; (iii) 34 pending only in the MDL Court; and (iv) 14 unfiled. See Letter, dated Feb. 2, 2019 [ECF No. 14411].

13. As counsel for New GM stated at the March 1, 2019 status conference in the MDL, 282 claims related to persons alleged to have suffered a personal injury or wrongful death remain pending in the MDL Action, including 110 claims arising from motor vehicle accidents that occurred prior to July 10, 2009. New GM anticipates that most of these claims will be resolved in the near future. See Mar. 1, 2019 MDL Status Conference Hr’g Tr. attached hereto as Exhibit D.

III. Status Of Discovery In The MDL Action.

14. Discovery in the MDL Action includes information on Old GM’s knowledge of the various defects and is not limited to information in the post-Sale period. New GM has produced more than 4.7 million documents (totaling more than 23.4 million pages) and the parties have conducted 759 depositions, including 454 depositions of case-specific witnesses, 102 depositions of current or former General Motors’ employees, 126 depositions of experts related to bellwether cases, and 96 depositions of named plaintiffs in the Fifth Amended Consolidated Complaint. See Joint Letter, In re Gen. Motors LLC Ignition Switch Litig., Case No. 14-md-02543-JMF (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 22, 2019), ECF No. 6501.

15. In conducting massive discovery for over four years of litigation in the MDL Action, the MDL plaintiffs constructed a detailed, comprehensive record of Old and New GM’s liability, as revealed in Plaintiffs’ Opposition to General Motors LLC’s Motion for Summary Judgment Against the Bellwether Economic Loss Plaintiffs, attached hereto as Exhibit E, its associated Statement of Undisputed Material Facts [unredacted form at MDL Dkt. No. 6061], attached hereto as Exhibit F, and the Economic Loss Plaintiffs Offer of Proof in support of bellwether class certification [unredacted form at MDL Dkt. No. 5847], attached hereto as Exhibit G.

16. Plaintiffs' Opposition to New GM's Daubert Motion to Exclude the Opinions of Stefan Boedeker filed in the MDL Action is attached hereto as Exhibit H.

I declare that the foregoing is true and correct under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States.

Executed this 8th day of March 2019 at Seattle, Washington.

1 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Counsel, please state your
2 appearance for the record.

3 MS. CABRASER: Good morning, your Honor. Elizabeth
4 Cabraser for plaintiffs.

5 MR. BERMAN: Good morning, your Honor. Steve Berman.

6 MR. HILLIARD: Good morning, Judge. Bob Hilliard.
7 May I introduce Mr. Derek Potts who's come from Houston. He 8 has the largest remaining docket of EPS cases.

9 Subject to an agreement reached late last night with 10 GM, he had requested permission to address the Court. We 11 discussed it this morning, and I don't believe it's necessary
12 anymore, but he's traveled all this way. So I wanted to 13 introduce him. He was prepared to speak to you about his 14 docket cases and the remand issues. So I appreciate him coming
15 all this way.

16 THE COURT: Welcome, Mr. Potts.

17 MR. GODFREY: Good morning, your Honor. Rick Godfrey
18 on behalf of New Gm. With me is Mr. Bloomer, Ms. Smith, and 19 Ms. Bloom.

20 THE COURT: Good morning to you. I heard that you
21 guys inadvertently headed to the airport instead of coming
22 here. You know what Freud would say about that; right? You
23 don't have to comment.

24 MR. GODFREY: I'm not sure how I could describe my 25 team ignoring my questions like why are we going to La Guardia.

1 THE COURT: Welcome. I'm glad you readied the ship,
2 so to speak, and everyone is here. A reminder to speak into
3 the microphone so that anyone on CourtCall can hear us. Let's
4 get into it.

5 The first item is the bankruptcy proceedings which 6 have become a little more involved. I know the motion to 7 withdraw the reference has been filed. I accepted it as 8 related, and it is now assigned to me.

9 I confess that I have not read the submissions with 10 care at this point. I have skimmed them, and I did notice, I
11 think, if I'm not mistaken, that New GM is arguing that the 12 motion to withdraw the reference would be unnecessary if 13 Judge Glenn were to grant a stay. So it raises in my mind the 14 question of what order these things should be addressed in and 15 briefing schedules and what have you.

16 Any thoughts on these issues?

17 MR. GODFREY: Yes, your Honor. Rick Godfrey on behalf
18 of New GM.

19 The way the schedule is currently set in the 20 bankruptcy court is that the plaintiffs' proposed settlement is 21 scheduled to be presented and heard on March 11. Unless there
22 is a change in that schedule, we have no time to await a stay
23 resolution and then brief withdrawal. Withdrawal briefing
24 should take place now. We filed an opening brief. We think
25 it's mandatory. We also think in the alternative, it's

1 permissive.

2 If Judge Glenn agrees with us due to the substantial
3 overlap, near identical overlap of the issues that this Court
4 has pending, and grants the stay, then there will be no reason
5 for this Court to rule on the withdrawal motion.

6 But if Judge Glenn either does not grant the motion to 7 stay or just simply does not rule on it, that hearing on the 8 approval of the proposed settlement should not take place
9 without the withdrawal motion being decided.

10 I can get into as much detail as the Court wants, but 11 you asked me a precise question on briefing, and my answer is 12 we should be briefing it right now.

13 THE COURT: Although March 11 is a week from Monday.
14 So that doesn't give a whole lot of time to brief these things,
15 let alone decide them.

16 MR. GODFREY: We are moving as expeditiously as 17 possible. We've moved very promptly. We asked for a schedule
18 on the stay motion. We filed on the 22nd. We will be filing
19 our objections on Monday, the 4th. But the plaintiffs have set
20 a schedule --

21 THE COURT: And you're filing your objections to the 22 settlement on March 4?

23 MR. GODFREY: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Is there a briefing schedule before
25 Judge Glenn on the motion for a stay?

1 MR. GODFREY: I think it's automatic, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: But he hasn't altered the default
3 schedule?

4 MR. GODFREY: Mr. Bloomer is reminding me of 5 something. If I might have a second, your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 (Defense counsel conferred)

8 MR. GODFREY: It's automatic, your Honor. We had 9 asked for a scheduling conference, but that did not take place.
10 So it's automatic in terms of briefing.

11 THE COURT: And is it a two-week/one-week briefing
12 schedule?

13 MR. BERMAN: Our brief in opposition to the motion to 14 stay is due on Monday.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have thoughts of how we 16 should be proceeding, what I should be doing?

17 MR. BERMAN: Yes, I do have thoughts, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: I would expect so.

19 MR. BERMAN: Our thoughts, Ms. Cabraser's and I, are 20 as follows: In its brief -- I just had a chance to skim it,
21 but at page 2, New GM says there is a stay motion before
22 Judge Glenn. In the absence of a stay, this Court should 23 withdraw the reference to the Rule 23 motion from the 24 bankruptcy court.

25 So our position is let's let this play out because if

1 Judge Glenn enters a stay, by GM's own words in the brief,
2 there is no need for you to wrestle with the withdrawal motion.

3 Now, Mr. Godfrey says that the timing is such that you
4 have to launch into the withdrawal motion because the 5 preliminary approval process may go ahead on March 11, the 6 judge may issue a preliminary approval order and not give a
7 stay, and therefore, you need to decide this.

8 And I suggest that let Judge Glenn decide if he's 9 going to approve the settlement and/or deny a stay. Then we
10 can deal with the bankruptcy withdrawal motion. As a practical
11 matter, there is not that big of a rush.

12 THE COURT: Does it not moot the withdrawal motion if 13 he does approve the settlement?

14 MR. BERMAN: No. If he approves the settlement, then 15 as I understand it, New GM will with more force want the 16 withdrawal motion. If he denies the preliminary approval, then 17 I don't think they're going to want the withdrawal motion. If 18 he grants preliminary approval, it's almost a de facto denial
19 of the stay, in which case we can brief the withdrawal motion.

20 But there is not this urgency because if he grants
21 preliminary approval, we then have to go and subpoena from Polk
22 and/or New GM the names and addresses of all the class members.

23 So there is going to be a long time period before
24 there is actually a final approval hearing, like five months.
25 Between the date he approves the preliminary approval and the

1 actual final settlement would be a five-month period.

2 THE COURT: I see.

3 MR. BERMAN: So I'm suggesting, let's see what
4 happens. And then if the stay is denied, we can wrestle with 5 the timing of briefing on the withdrawal motion.

6 THE COURT: All right. Meaning your position is we
7 shouldn't even set a briefing schedule on the withdrawal
8 motion.

9 MR. BERMAN: That's correct, until we find out if it's 10 needed.

11 THE COURT: Right now I assume under the default
12 rules, you would normally have -- I don't know how these things
13 work.

14 MR. BERMAN: We would normally do it on the default
15 rules. Our opposition to the mother to withdraw is due next 16 Friday.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 MR. BERMAN: If you want to go ahead with briefing, we 19 would ask for some more time on that because he's wrestling
20 with the stay motion due Monday, and then effectively that 21 would only give us Tuesday through Friday to work on the 22 withdrawal motion. So at a minimum, we'd want to push that out
23 a little bit.

24 THE COURT: I know you're capable of doing more than 25 one thing at a time, but I hear you.

1 Mr. Godfrey, there seems some wisdom in letting things
2 play out. Let me put it this way: I don't think I would be in
3 a position to decide the withdrawal motion by March 11. It's 4 not fully briefed, and I haven't started looking at it. It's a
5 big issue to decide in that timeframe. It's essentially a week
6 from now.

7 So I don't see much choice in letting things play out
8 and seeing what Judge Glenn does with both the settlement and 9 the stay application. And then we can assess where there's 10 urgency and what the schedule should be. No?

11 MR. GODFREY: Well, first, this is driven by the 12 plaintiffs' insistence of having a March 11 preliminary
13 approval date. If they change the date, this Court has plenty
14 of time to consider the withdrawal matter.

15 Second, withdrawal is mandatory. We don't think on 16 the issues at hand, Judge Glenn has jurisdiction or should be 17 deciding them. Third --

18 THE COURT: So why did you wait until February 22 to 19 file the motion then?

20 MR. GODFREY: They filed their papers on February 1 or 21 February 2. We filed our motion to stay --

22 THE COURT: Right. But you've been threatening a
23 motion to withdraw the reference for literally six months, if I
24 remember correctly. Certainly this is not the first time I
25 heard it.

1 So I would think you could have either filed before
2 they filed their motion. I think the motion schedule was 3 previously set. So in that regard, Judge Glenn was 4 entertaining it, or you could have been in a position to file
5 it on February 2.

6 MR. GODFREY: No. Because we actually read their 7 papers. Their papers have serious problems. We actually tied 8 our motion to the request. And we demonstrate the overlap. We 9 demonstrate the inconsistent risk. We demonstrate the waste of 10 judicial resources, and we do that in our papers based on what 11 they filed.

12 THE COURT: So what do you propose?

13 MR. GODFREY: What I propose is either one of two 14 things: Either they adjourn the March 11 date so that 15 Judge Glenn has the opportunity to determine whether there is a
16 stay that will be entered or not; we simultaneously brief
17 withdrawals so that if Judge Glenn denies the stay motion; this 18 Court can then in due course take up the withdrawal motion.
19 There is no rush on this, other than the rush created by the 20 plaintiffs.

21 THE COURT: And I don't know how Judge Glenn's
22 calendar operates.

23 What leads us to believe that he actually is going to 24 rule on the settlement on March 11?

25 MR. GODFREY: That's what plaintiffs have asked for.

1 That's what we're preparing for. We're preparing for a
2 hearing -- the bankruptcy counsel is for New GM. We're
3 preparing for a hearing on preliminary approval, at which point
4 they'll be off to the races, at which point they'll be saying
5 it's already a done deal and you don't need to worry about
6 withdrawal. That's what we'll hear. This should be decided 7 beforehand.

8 THE COURT: And what's the harm -- assuming that he
9 does grant preliminary approval, it's just preliminary.

10 So what's the harm? How does it moot the withdrawal
11 motion?

12 MR. GODFREY: Well, first, we don't think he has the 13 authority, since withdrawal is mandatory. Secondly, he will be 14 making rulings on virtually every issue that currently is 15 pending before this Court.

16 These are the identical issues with one narrow
17 exception, and you can't even reach that exception until you
18 make the rulings that are pending before this Court on class
19 certification, on Daubert, and on summary judgment.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Berman, what's the harm in asking
21 Judge Glenn to put the brakes on settlement approval to first 22 sort out whether to put the brakes on altogether and/or whether 23 he should be resolving these things at all?

24 MR. BERMAN: Well, First of all, the premise of 25 Mr. Godfrey's motion is there is this huge overlap between

1 what's before you and what's before Judge Glenn. That's just
2 not true. There are five good reasons why it's not true.
3 First of all, the parties are not the same. In the bankruptcy
4 court --

5 THE COURT: I'm less interested in the merits at the 6 moment. You'll have your opportunity to brief those I imagine.

7 MR. BERMAN: Because New GM has known of this schedule
8 since they filed their papers. They could have filed the 9 motion to withdraw weeks ago, and we would have had time for 10 your Honor to consider this. So they're the ones crunching the 11 time.

12 At the same time, Judge Glenn is pushing us because 13 this settlement proposal is on its third version. He wants to 14 get it going. So we're kind of following the schedule that 15 we've worked out with him ahead of time.

16 So we filed it for a hearing on March 11. We don't 17 know if he's going to act on it on March 11. I doubt he will.
18 I assume he's going to take some time to consider the briefing.

19 But again, I harken back to New GM's brief because 20 they're taking a different position now than they did in the 21 withdrawal brief they filed in front of you where they say in 22 their withdrawal brief: "In the absence of a stay, the Court
23 should withdraw the reference."

24 So they're saying let the stay issue be decided first,
25 and then we can figure out if you should entertain withdrawal

1 from the bankruptcy court.

2 THE COURT: I certainly think it's hard to square that
3 position with the position that withdrawal is mandatory.

4 Again, I'll presumably have an opportunity to consider those 5 things in due course.

6 I think I'm inclined to reach out to Judge Glenn and 7 just figure out what's going on on his end of things. I did
8 speak to him earlier this week, but at the time, I wasn't clear
9 what the state of play was.

10 Right now my inclination is to wait and see how things
11 play out in front of him and, on that basis, figure out whether 12 we need to brief the withdrawal motion and, if so, on what
13 schedule.

14 So to that end, plaintiffs need not respond by next
15 Friday, and I certainly am not going to decide it by March 11.
16 I will tell you that. But I'll talk to Judge Glenn. That will 17 inform, I suppose, what kind of schedule we need to set.

18 I guess my inclination is to set a default schedule
19 right now that we can always alter in the event that it's 20 appropriate to do so.

21 So, Mr. Berman, what do you propose on that score?

22 MR. BERMAN: My team would like two weeks from 23 March 8.

24 THE COURT: All right. So the more efficient way of 25 saying that is March 22.

1 MR. BERMAN: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: I'll give you till March 22 and GM until
3 March 29 to file a reply. If there is reason or need to alter
4 that after I speak with Judge Glenn, I will alert you and we
5 will revisit it.

6 Mr. Godfrey.

7 MR. GODFREY: To be precise, we asked for a stay or,
8 in the alternative, a stay allowing the briefing and the 9 resolution of the withdrawal motion. That was what we asked
10 for, was relief on the motion for a stay.

11 So it was a two-part motion, the first part being just 12 a stay. But in the event the court, that is, Judge Glenn, did
13 not agree with that, then a stay allowing this Court to have 14 full briefing and ruling on the withdrawal motion.

15 THE COURT: So something in the nature of an 16 administrative stay.

17 MR. GODFREY: Correct.

18 THE COURT: But those are issues for Judge Glenn.

19 MR. GODFREY: Yes. It wasn't a stay and then
20 withdrawal. It was a stay, period. And if you don't grant the 21 stay, then at least enter a stay until the withdrawal motion
22 can be briefed and decided by this Court.

23 THE COURT: Am I wrong in thinking that if he were to 24 deny a stay, that you would have an ability to appeal that 25 ruling to me? Is that wrong?

1 MR. GODFREY: I think we'd have an ability to appeal
2 that ruling, but at that point, I think it would merge as a
3 practical matter in the withdrawal papers. They are slightly
4 different standards, but it comes to the same outcome
5 eventually.

6 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

7 And then taking a step back, more broadly, I take
8 it -- well, what are your respective views -- and they may 9 differ -- on how this intersects with the motions that are 10 pending before me in terms of what order they should be.

11 I take it GM's position is that I should decide the 12 motions pending before me, and then that would have a bearing,
13 if not resolve, the motions.

14 MR. GODFREY: It's not just GM's position, your Honor.
15 The settlement agreement itself, in comments made by bankruptcy
16 counsel for the plaintiffs, are that this Court's decisions
17 will have impacts.

18 In fact, there is a provision in the proposed
19 settlement agreement that depending upon how this Court rules,
20 they may have to re-do the notice. They may have to re-do
21 various terms of the agreement. There are provisions in the 22 agreement which recognize this.

23 In our papers, we outline all the statements they've 24 made over the past three months indicating that they are 25 dependent upon -- and this Court's rulings have an ultimate

1 bearing upon -- the terms of the settlement, the proposed
2 settlement.

3 THE COURT: And I take it that you're moving to 4 withdraw the reference only as to the Rule 23 motion before the 5 bankruptcy court; correct?

6 MR. GODFREY: That's correct.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 Mr. Berman, did you want to say anything on that 9 front?

10 MR. BERMAN: Mr. Godfrey is correct that your rulings
11 on summary judgment in particular will have bearing on 12 ultimately who gets money out of the adjusted shares.

13 I don't think your ruling on class certification will
14 impact the bankruptcy for a couple of reasons: One, before you
15 on class certification is a test case of just three states; and 16 two, before you is a litigated Rule 23(b)(3) class.

17 Before the bankruptcy court is a 23(b)(1)(A) class
18 which is a limited fund class settlement which is a whole
19 different standard, and it's a settlement of class which has a
20 different standard as well. So the class certification rulings
21 I think are very much different.

22 THE COURT: All right. But it sounds like everybody
23 is in agreement that it probably makes sense to take up the 24 pending motions before me before turning to the bankruptcy
25 motions in the event that I do withdraw the reference.

1 MR. BERMAN: That's correct.

2 THE COURT: Okay. There is a lot going on. We will,
3 I'm sure, have more to discuss on this front. In the meantime,
4 that is the schedule we'll follow.

5 I will tell you that I am certainly trying and will 6 try to get you rulings on the pending motions as soon as
7 possible. You might have inferred that I've been a little busy
8 over the last few months. And in that regard, there are so
9 many hours in the day. So it is what it is. But I'm going to 10 do as best I can.

11 Mr. Godfrey.

12 MR. GODFREY: I know the Court has been busy.

13 THE COURT: Yes. Partially because of you and 14 unrelated matters, but we don't have to discuss that.

15 MR. GODFREY: I was playing back in my mind when you
16 said I think we're all in agreement. I'm not sure I understood
17 the Court correctly. So if I could rephrase what I think we're 18 in agreement on. I think the withdrawal motion needs to take
19 place before Judge Glenn decides any issues on the proposed
20 settlement.

21 I think before any issues on the proposed settlement
22 can be decided, this Court needs to rule on various issues. I
23 cannot disagree more with Mr. Berman about his characterization
24 of the class issues, but that's for another day. So I'm not 25 sure --

1 THE COURT: I think I was referring just to in the 2 event that I do withdraw the reference, what order I should
3 take up the motions. There it seems like everybody is in 4 agreement that the motions that are already pending before
5 me --

6 MR. GODFREY: I apologize. I misunderstood. Yes. I
7 agree with that.

8 THE COURT: Very good.

9 Anything else to discuss on that front? All right.
10 Good.

11 Mr. Berman, who is counsel in the case, the motion to 12 withdraw the reference case? I don't have the docket number
13 handy, but on your side.

14 MR. BERMAN: Ms. Cabraser and I, along with our 15 bankruptcy lawyers.

16 THE COURT: Have you entered a notice of appearance in 17 the matter?

18 MR. BERMAN: No, we have not. We're still trying to 19 figure out why that happened. A new case was opened. If we 20 need to file a notice of appearance, we will do so.

21 THE COURT: My understanding of how things these 22 things work -- I confess I think this is the first motion to
23 withdraw I've received as a judge. But I think it gets filed
24 in the bankruptcy court, and then it's transmitted to the clerk
25 of the district court and opened as a new case. So that's why

1 it happened that way.

2 I would just urge you to enter a notice of appearance
3 so that in the event I do issue orders or there is any need to 4 do anything, you will actually receive them.

5 MR. BERMAN: We will get that done today.

6 MS. CABRASER: We'll just do one omnibus notice of 7 appearance for all the counsel so that everybody is on the 8 docket.

9 THE COURT: Great. Excellent.

10 MR. GODFREY: We will also check that, your Honor.
11 Obviously bankruptcy counsel is resident here. We at Kirkland
12 are pro hac vice. So we will check that as well. We may have 13 to enter an appearance in that also.

14 THE COURT: You all should definitely figure it out.
15 I think there was counsel certainly on your side, but I don't 16 remember who it was.

17 MR. GODFREY: It was Paul, Weiss and King & Spalding
18 who are resident here. But having heard what you said to 19 Mr. Berman, we'll figure it out on our side. We may be filing
20 an appearance also.

21 THE COURT: Okay. On the agenda, items 2 through 4,
22 is there any need to discuss anything? It doesn't look like
23 it. That is, coordinated, related actions, document
24 production, and deposition updates.

25 MR. GODFREY: Just briefly, your Honor. During the

1 last status, I had put a marker down about a case in Maryland,
2 the Mary Schroeder case. I am pleased to report that the
3 matter and the issue have now been resolved. So we will not
4 have any risk of needing this Court's intervention, and I
5 thought the Court should be aware of that.

6 THE COURT: Good. Thank you.

7 MR. GODFREY: Secondly, Ms. Bloom has been very busy
8 in the last three months.

9 THE COURT: I think the last few years.

10 MR. GODFREY: Well, I'm informed that the status is 11 we're now down to 174 MDL cases. Close to 90 percent of all
12 cases that have been filed in the MDL have now been resolved.
13 Over half of the remaining cases were filed last year or early
14 this year.

15 So the progress in terms of an endgame resolution for 16 the personal injury docket has been significant. We're not
17 quite done yet, but even this week -- and Ms. Bloom can report
18 further either now or in chambers. She's been negotiating like
19 mad and getting some resolutions. So the numbers are changing
20 almost on a daily and weekly basis.

21 THE COURT: All right. Can I just get clarification.
22 This is sort of merging into the next item on the agenda. You
23 said 174. Your letter of February 22 indicated less than 350,
24 including 176 post-sale order claims.

25 Are you referring to --

1 MR. GODFREY: I'm referring to just this Court, not
2 the presale.

3 Ms. Bloom is going to take over now.

4 THE COURT: I think there are some presale claims
5 pending before me.

6 MS. BLOOM: So there are 172 remaining post-sale
7 claims, and I do think that by the end of March, a good number
8 of those will be gone. We have settlement conferences set up
9 for one that affects 34, one that affects 8, one that affects
10 7. I'm optimistic that a good number of these will all be gone
11 by the end of March.

12 The only thing I'd say is there is a group of 68
13 claims that remain, just so that you know, by one firm. They 14 have informed us that they have a number of additional claims
15 that they have not yet filed that they're working through.

16 So then for us, in terms of being able to work with 17 them to try to resolve those post-sale claims, there is a big 18 process where we have to get the information from them and 19 review it internally.

20 So for that group of 68 claims, post-sale claims, it
21 may not be until summer now that we can resolve those or 22 attempt to resolve them in light of that additional information
23 that we have learned. So you may see new claims filed, and I
24 would anticipate they'll all be from that one firm.

25 THE COURT: Which firm is that?

1 MS. BLOOM: And then your Honor is correct. On the
2 presale docket, we've made really tremendous progress, and that
3 impacts both the personal injury/wrongful death claims that
4 have been pending before Judge Glenn, as well as your Honor.

5 We are now down to 110 presale claims. 98 of those
6 are with Mr. Potts, and the parties are meeting next month,
7 March 21, again, with Mr. Black as mediator. He is the same
8 mediator that we used for the Bailey firm in Houston, and we 9 had good success.

10 And we're hopeful not only to resolve those presale
11 claims but also that we'll be able to resolve Mr. Potts'
12 remaining claims in the MDL that are post sale. So then you
13 really would be down to just a handful of presale claims.

14 THE COURT: You said 110 presale claims?

15 MS. BLOOM: Yes.

16 THE COURT: That's presale claims pending on the MDL
17 docket?

18 MS. BLOOM: Yes. Before your Honor.

19 THE COURT: So I'm confused because the letter you
20 guys filed yesterday seems to have 171 in that category.

21 MS. BLOOM: So after filing the letter that you
22 reviewed late last night, we filed the announcement of a
23 settlement that we just entered into on Wednesday where we 24 settled a bunch of presale claims. Yes.

25 So that meant that -- so we were struggling with that.

1 We hadn't signed the term sheet. So I had the team send in the
2 letter without incorporating those numbers and then reported
3 the numbers to your Honor last night in a letter.

4 THE COURT: All right. Are you filing anything with 5 respect to that settlement before me?

6 MS. BLOOM: Your Honor, that's good actually a good
7 point. The other thing I wanted to bring up is that because a
8 number of these settlements now involve presale claims, the 9 mediator that we have used, Dan Balhoff, who was the original
10 mediator for the Hilliard post-sale docket, requested that he 11 would like the same process that was used then which is that he 12 be appointed special master. It does help in terms of being 13 able to send out offer letters to have the imprimatur of the 14 Court.

15 So there will be about four or five of these
16 settlements actually starting next week where we will be filing
17 with your Honor papers very similar to what we did with the 18 post-sale docket where we will be seeking to have a qualified
19 settlement fund set up that your Honor will oversee and also to 20 have Mr. Balhoff appointed as the settlement special master for 21 those cases.

22 THE COURT: I think you indicated in the letter
23 reporting on the settlement with Mr. Hilliard's presale docket
24 a similar intention. Correct?

25 MS. BLOOM: That's exactly right. He will be one of

1 the dockets that will be coming along with the very same sort
2 of paperwork. That's right.

3 THE COURT: Will it be same as the one that I
4 previously approved?

5 MS. BLOOM: Yes. They will be virtually identical.
6 You'll see a trust agreement, and then you'll see the same
7 qualified settlement fund administrator, Scott Freeman, that
8 we'd be proposing in each of these qualified settlement funds.
9 And then you will see in each of them a motion to appoint
10 Mr. Balhoff as the settlement special master. So, yes. They 11 will be virtually identical but just different plaintiff law
12 firms, different aggregate settlements.

13 THE COURT: It would be helpful if when you file it,
14 if you could file a letter just identifying if there are any 15 changes from the motion that I approved several years ago on 16 that front, just to sort of draw my attention to those. That 17 would be helpful.

18 MS. BLOOM: Sure. I don't imagine that there would be 19 anything really that has changed. It's just for tax purposes
20 you need separate funds for the different plaintiff lawyer
21 groups and the different groups that are putting money into the 22 fund. So they'll be virtually identical, but I will, to the 23 extent there is anything different, make sure to do a cover
24 note.

25 THE COURT: All right. Great.

1 Mr. Hilliard, anything on that?

2 MR. HILLIARD: On behalf of new Gm, your Honor, all
3 conveyed to you accurately.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Godfrey.

5 MR. GODFREY: I was thinking that when we send in the 6 papers, we should update the Court on statistics so we all have 7 the current statistics about where we stand just in terms of 8 pending cases, etc.

9 Either way, we're at the 90 percent mark. In terms of 10 a plan, there is one group that's going to be at the end. The 11 theory is that the number of new cases except for this one
12 group has dropped off precipitously, but I can't make any 13 representations to the Court that that won't change at some 14 time.

15 THE COURT: Certainly there is no objection if you
16 want to update me sooner, but there is the monthly report. As 17 you saw from my endorsement, I think, given that the numbers
18 are low enough now, I think we should actually move to an 19 actual spreadsheet as to each individual plaintiff and where 20 things stand as to that plaintiff and so forth.

21 One follow-up question. Ms. Bloom, you referred to 22 the 68 pages remaining from one firm that has a number of other
23 unfiled claims.

24 Can you tell me what firm that is.

25 MS. BLOOM: That is the Langdon & Emison firm. That

1 is the same firm that we settled with this week, an aggregate
2 settlement of their presale docket. So it is also the same
3 firm that earlier -- I don't remember if it was before we met
4 with you or sort of in the interim, but we also sort of did an
5 aggregate settlement with them for one set of their post-sale
6 claims that were affiliated with one referring counsel. Now
7 we're dealing with what's left of their post-sale docket. So
8 that's sort of the last big push I think that's here really
9 after the Potts firm.

10 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

11 Now, Mr. Potts, I know you came all this way. If 12 there's anything you want to say, you're welcome to.

13 MR. POTTS: If you will give me just one minute,
14 your Honor.

15 When we talk about post-sale claims, we have a group
16 of claims that are not ignition switch I submit in that bucket.
17 We have 23 of those. Those are ESC or EPS claims. As the 18 Court knows, those cases have not been worked up. There has 19 been virtually no discovery.

20 I read your order a couple days ago saying you were 21 inclined to remand those. I just want to let you know we 22 wholeheartedly support that. Those people have waited for 23 years and have years more to wait because there has been no
24 discovery done. So as soon as that could be done, we would ask
25 the Court to do that.

1 THE COURT: All right. We'll turn to that in a
2 moment. I'm happy to hear further from you on that if you
3 want.

4 Ms. Smith.

5 MS. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. I just want to clarify
6 that the Court's order that I believe Mr. Potts is referring to 7 related to a certain subset of 18 claims. The Court has not
8 addressed -- and the parties all agree that we are not going to 9 address -- what the next steps are for the group of what we 10 call order 153 claims. So I just wanted to make sure there was 11 a clarification of what groups we were talking about here.

12 THE COURT: I was planning to ask for that
13 clarification since there are a lot of numbers being thrown
14 around even as to the 18. One of you says 17. The other says
15 18.

16 MS. SMITH: We're good with 18. It should be 18. So
17 I apologize for the confusion.

18 THE COURT: And the 23 that Mr. Potts just referred to 19 is in the pot, no pun intended, of cases that I thought there
20 was agreement. And in fact, I think I already ruled on it in 21 order 160 that there's basically a 60-day period during which 22 you're going to try and resolve them. If you don't, then we 23 would go from there.

24 Is that correct?

25 MS. SMITH: Thank you, your Honor. That is correct.

1 Just so the record is not unclear about this, we do
2 not agree that there has been no discovery related to those
3 cases, but we don't need to address that now. But I just 4 wanted to respond briefly to that.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Potts, you can tell me if you think
6 otherwise, but it sounds like we should take that up after the 7 end of that 60-day period, if you will.

8 I think the inclination that I shared in my 9 endorsement on the agenda letter, suffice it to say, I would
10 probably have the same inclination with respect to non ignition
11 switch claims that remain after that 60-day period, which is to 12 say my gut at the moment is that those should probably be 13 remanded sooner rather than later if they're not resolved.

14 MR. POTTS: I would agree. GM just recently agreed to 15 mediate those. So we were going to attempt to mediate those 16 with the rest of our docket on March 21.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. POTTS: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Good luck to you all on that.

20 So sticking to the agenda letter, we've more or less
21 moved into item number 5. But wave one and wave two, wave one,
22 there are just the two remaining plaintiffs and a fully 23 submitted summary judgment motion that I will rule on 24 relatively soon I hope.

25 Is there anything to discuss as to wave two or the

1 order numbered 137, 140, and 148?

2 MR. GODFREY: No, your Honor, not from New GM's
3 perspective.

4 MR. HILLIARD: No, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: As to the personal injury next steps, I
6 think I resolved -- "resolved" may be the wrong word -- but 7 took care of most of it in order number 160, including the 8 dispute with respect to two of the plaintiffs, Cleveland and 9 Gabriel.

10 MS. BLOOM: I should also just inform your Honor with 11 respect to the Cleveland and Gabriel matter, the parties were 12 able to work out just yesterday. Because the plaintiff firm is 13 based in New Orleans and Mr. Balhoff, who has mediated hundreds
14 of these claims, is based in Baton Rouge which is right close
15 to there. So the parties have agreed to mediate with him. So
16 we will not need the services of Judge Cott. We will be aiming 17 to have that mediation occur in March as well.

18 THE COURT: Great. Thanks for letting me know that.

19 Am I correct that the plaintiffs who would be subject
20 to order number 160 -- that in that process that they would 21 include pro se plaintiffs?

22 MS. SMITH: Yes. There will be a couple of plaintiffs
23 who are pro se I think excluded from the process which would be 24 ones that are in what we call the order 137 process where 25 counsel has moved to withdraw and we don't know where they're

1 going to end up.

2 But I think there are two or three that are in the
3 wave process or subject to that wave three where they've gone
4 through order 137. They've either amended or complied or 5 whatever they needed to do, and their claims still exist.

6 They are proceeding pro se. So the next steps on
7 those claims we thought -- and I think agreed by Mr. Hilliard
8 and his team -- would be to include them in the wave as well.

9 THE COURT: All right. There is one pro se plaintiff
10 who has filed a number of things before me, Ms. Kramer.

11 Her case I presume would be in that list. Is that 12 correct?

13 MS. SMITH: That is correct, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: So I am concerned. I just want to make 15 sure -- the procedures are complicated, and I periodically see 16 lawyers who file things saying that they're befuddled by the 17 number of orders and the number of ECF hits and so forth. All
18 the more confusing for a nonlawyer to navigate.

19 I want to make sure that any pro se litigants are 20 clearly advised of and capable of understanding what they need
21 to do in order to comply with order 160 and whatever else they 22 need to do.

23 Any thoughts on that?

24 MR. HILLIARD: Your Honor, we took your endorsement to 25 heart. We're familiar with Ms. Kramer and are sensitive to and

1 have communicated with her throughout the years. We intend to
2 work with GM to unbedfuddle procedure to be sure that it is
3 simple, direct, concise, and be available as well to answer any 4 questions along the way of the pro se plaintiffs.

5 I'm happy to submit it to the Court for the Court's
6 review to be sure that you agree that this is what the Court
7 expects us to do. But I think we're clear as to the purpose
8 and to be sure that they don't feel overwhelmed or overworded,
9 if I can use that, in regards to what they need to do in order
10 to protect their interests.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 Mr. Godfrey.

13 MR. GODFREY: We agree with that. We think it's 14 actually beneficial, not just to the Court but to the parties,
15 to try to simplify procedures. It will probably save us more
16 time and money in the long run if we do that. So we'll work
17 with the plaintiffs in that regard pursuant to this Court's 18 suggestion.

19 THE COURT: What are your thoughts? I guess I was 20 thinking at a minimum that having some sort of notice in more
21 lay terms that would be served on any pro se plaintiffs, along
22 with whatever orders are applicable, would make sense but sort
23 of translating those into more understandable lay terms.
24 That's one option.

25 Another option would be to sort of have a separate

1 order that would lay it out in more clear, understandable ways
2 for an unrepresented party. In either case, I would think it
3 would make sense to sort of settle on that before the list of 4 wave three plaintiffs is nailed down or maybe even before
5 March 20 when I think order number 160 requires GM to serve
6 those plaintiffs with its notice. It might make sense to have 7 something done before then so that you could serve along with 8 that notice whatever we come up with.

9 Thoughts.

10 MR. HILLIARD: A separate order makes sense to me,
11 Judge. It could be the deadlines would be almost identical to 12 those who are represented, but we might be able to be fairly
13 flexible to something that may come up, and separate orders
14 might keep it cleaner in regards to how we handle pro se
15 plaintiffs. We'll confer with GM this afternoon and tomorrow
16 to try to get it started quickly.

17 THE COURT: So you why don't you report back let's say
18 within a week so that we hopefully can have something resolved
19 before that March 20 deadline.

20 Does that make sense?

21 MR. HILLIARD: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: I recognize, Mr. Hilliard, you don't 23 actually represent these people, but if I could task you with 24 on behalf of the Court, I suppose, representing their interest
25 in terms of me figuring out a good way of handling this, that

1 would be helpful.

2 MR. HILLIARD: I will, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Great. Thanks.

4 Do we know how many pro se plaintiffs are already in 5 this group approximately?

6 MS. SMITH: I believe it's two is what Mr. Hilliard is 7 saying.

8 MR. HILLIARD: Pardon me for interrupting. Goodwin is 9 the second one. So Kramer and Goodwin.

10 THE COURT: All right. I'm pleased that it's not a
11 large number, but I do want to make sure that they are clearly 12 advised of what they need to do so that they don't run into 13 trouble inadvertently. All right. Very good. So I'll expect
14 something within a week on that front.

15 So that leaves 18 I take it we're now in agreement.

16 Is that correct?

17 MR. GODFREY: Yes.

18 THE COURT: All right. I think, as we've discussed,
19 I've shared my inclination. I don't really see why the 20 12(b)(6) and statute of limitations repose arguments that New 21 GM wants to bring -- I don't see what efficiency is gained from 22 having those litigated before me as opposed to sending them
23 back to a transfer judge for any number of reasons. So I
24 really wouldn't be inclined to keep those and would be inclined
25 to remand them.

1 By contrast, to the extent that New GM thinks that my
2 December 2017 opinion with respect to airbag deployment would
3 dispose of any cases in that group, I think there is a stronger
4 argument that, given my familiarity with those issues and what
5 have you, that New GM should at least have an opportunity to 6 make that argument.

7 So I've got an agreed upon joint proposal I take it
8 for timing and procedures for remand. I don't know if that 9 means that you've accepted my inclination.

10 MR. HILLIARD: We've learned that your inclinations
11 are usually best accepted.

12 THE COURT: Sometimes I change my mind.

13 MR. HILLIARD: Sometimes you do. We've spent time
14 together and have come up to this agreement, subject to the 15 Court's approval, on our suggested next step for remand.

16 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Smith.

17 MS. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. We also took your
18 inclination to heart. Although we passionately -- and I mean
19 passionately -- believe these claims would be served by 20 remaining here, at the same time that this agreed process is 21 going on, we will be working on settling these claims as well.
22 So we're, again, cautiously optimistic that at least some of 23 these will resolve before we ever get through the process.

24 But taking the Court's inclination to heart and kind
25 of wanting to get peace and having these at least 18 procedures

1 resolved, we did work out an agreement with lead counsel last
2 night on this. But to make clear, for the next steps on the 3 next 60 claims, this is of course without prejudice to 4 maintaining our position on whether they should be remanded or 5 not.

6 THE COURT: Understood. So this proposal looks good
7 to me. So I'm happy to bless it. I would think it would make 8 sense to memorialize this in a stand-alone order separate and 9 apart from the post status conference order. So why don't you
10 convert this into a proposed order and let's say submit it
11 within the next week as well.

12 Does that make sense?

13 MS. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

14 MR. HILLIARD: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: As I said before, I think we can defer
16 discussion of the 23 cases or however many other order 153
17 cases there may be until the 60-day period is over.

18 Mr. Potts, is that good with you?

19 MR. POTTS: It is.

20 THE COURT: Excellent. Are there other cases in the 21 mix that wouldn't fall in one of the buckets that we just 22 discussed? Anything else to discuss?

23 MS. SMITH: I believe from New GM's perspective on the 24 personal injury cases, that covers it.

25 THE COURT: What about the 110 presale order claims?

1 Where do those stand?

2 MS. BLOOM: So I really think by the end of March
3 there is just a handful remaining. If we don't have a
4 successful resolution with the Potts firm, then we would still
5 have their 98 or so claims plus the handful of others
6 remaining.

7 So what I would suggest is that we take this up at the 8 next status or some such thing when we have a better sense of 9 where we are with that, but I'm cautiously optimistic.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Potts, to the extent that you have the 11 largest number of those, does that make sense?

12 MR. POTTS: Yes. I believe by March 21st, we'll know
13 where we stand.

14 THE COURT: Good luck on that front as well. I'll 15 leave it to you to figure out if Mr. Potts has the majority of 16 those claims and we're going to discuss them at the next
17 conference, then it might make sense for him to come back so
18 that we can have an informed discussion about what to do if any 19 of those cases remain.

20 Since I think it makes sense to raise it now, my 21 suggestion about a tracking spreadsheet of some sort. I take 22 it from the last line of your letter from yesterday that you're 23 okay with that and agree it would be a good idea, and you're 24 all nodding.

25 MR. GODFREY: From New GM's perspective, I think at

1 this stage it's appropriate and necessary.

2 MR. HILLIARD: We agree, Judge. It's a good idea.

3 THE COURT: It would obviously be helpful if you are 4 conferring about it to make sure everybody is in agreement as 5 to who the plaintiffs are and what orders they're subject to 6 and what upcoming deadlines there are and so forth.

7 I think GM has been filing these letters. If you
8 could make sure that you confer before you file them to make
9 sure you work out numbers and who they are and so forth, that 10 would be great. All right? Terrific.

11 MR. GODFREY: Your Honor, in that regard, do you want
12 to see a draft of the formatting before we actually populate it
13 with the information to make sure it captures what you're 14 interested in?

15 THE COURT: Sure. I think that's a great idea. We 16 can do that informally. If you just want to email my chambers,
17 we can give you feedback.

18 MR. GODFREY: We don't want to prepare something and 19 then your Honor says you're missing the three pieces of 20 information you want. So we'll do that and send it to your 21 chambers.

22 THE COURT: The thing that I'm most eager to ensure,
23 number one, is that we're aware of the status of every 24 plaintiff and that we're aware of who the plaintiffs are; two,
25 that they're all subject to something, not just sort of

1 languishing; and number three, that we are all, including
2 myself, aware of whatever upcoming deadlines there are so that
3 we can kind of monitor them and make sure that what needs to be 4 done does in fact get done and what have you.

5 It partially dovetails with other items on my agenda
6 from the endorsement which are there are these motions that are 7 kind of floating out there. And sometimes it takes us time to 8 get to the bottom of whether these things are live, moot, etc.

9 I think it would be helpful in terms of that as well.
10 So that would be great. Why don't you just share it
11 informally. Then once we're all on the same page, you can 12 start submitting those monthly.

13 Ms. Smith, did you want to say something?

14 MS. SMITH: I didn't know if you wanted us to address
15 your two specific questions about terminating certain dockets.

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 MS. SMITH: Number two I think on your agenda was the 18 docket number 5383. I believe New GM and lead counsel both 19 believe that those motions and claims on that docket may be 20 terminated if they have been mooted.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. SMITH: Number 3 on your agenda is the status of 23 the motion to dismiss 25 claims. And that's docket 5974. All
24 the claims on that motion except for one we agree may be 25 terminated, and that is the claim of Ms. Uglow, case number

1 15 CV 04385.

2 To what your Honor was saying, in going through this
3 process, to answer your question, we realize that Ms. Uglow had
4 never responded to the motion to dismiss. Under order 153,
5 there was a requirement to either state she was going to amend
6 or withdraw certain things. So we will probably send a letter
7 on that coming up.

8 Other than Ms. Uglow's claim, that docket may also be 9 terminated. I believe lead counsel is in agreement with that 10 as well.

11 THE COURT: Can I propose, in part for my own internal 12 housekeeping reasons and in part just to make sure that things
13 are 100 percent clear, does it not make more sense to deny the 14 motion in its entirety and then you can file a new motion with 15 respect to Ms. Uglow and serve that on her?

16 MS. SMITH: I think that should be fine. We can do
17 that within the week or so.

18 THE COURT: Good. I'll take care of that then. That 19 would be helpful.

20 I assume we've covered at least what we can cover in 21 open session on the settlement front.

22 Is there anything further to discuss out here?

23 MR. GODFREY: Just one second, your Honor. Let me
24 look through my notes.

25 THE COURT: Sure.

1 MR. GODFREY: Not from New GM's perspective,
2 your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Anything else from the front table?

4 MR. HILLIARD: Not from the PI side, Judge.

5 MR. BLOOMER: Nothing from GM.

6 THE COURT: In a few minutes, we'll retire to the 7 robing room and have an in-camera discussion. A couple
8 questions before we do so. Number one, I assume no need for a
9 court reporter in that session.

10 MR. HILLIARD: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: Everyone said no just for the record.

12 Number two, we should figure out a next conference
13 date. So thoughts on that front. It would probably make
14 sense -- it sounds like certainly by the end of March a lot
15 will be clearer on the PI/wrongful death side. I'm not sure
16 how much there is to discuss on the economic loss side until I
17 resolve the motions and sort out the reference issues, etc.

18 Sometime in April maybe, given --

19 MR. HILLIARD: Your Honor, I would ask the Court if 20 the 17th, 18th, or 19th of April would work. I have a trial in 21 the first part of April that will go, and I would be 22 unavailable the in first two weeks.

23 THE COURT: The 19th definitely doesn't because
24 Passover starts that evening. I could do the 17th or 18th.

25 MR. GODFREY: I'm flying back from vacation on the

1 17th, but I could do the 18th, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I'm relieved to hear that you take
3 vacation, Mr. Godfrey.

4 MR. GODFREY: I hit a certain age, and my wife is 5 enforcing the rule, at least occasionally.

6 THE COURT: Which day are you flying back?

7 MR. GODFREY: The 17th. So I could be here on the 8 18th.

9 THE COURT: Does the 18th work for everybody?

10 MS. CABRASER: I think it works for plaintiff,
11 your Honor.

12 MR. HILLIARD: It works.

13 THE COURT: So let's do the 18th at 9:30. I will look 14 for your proposed order memorializing what we've done today in 15 the next few days. As discussed, you should submit a separate
16 order with respect to the remand issues and the pro se issues
17 and what have you.

18 Anything else?

19 MR. GODFREY: No, your Honor. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Great.

21 MR. HILLIARD: Thank you, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Depending on how many people are coming
23 into the robing room, we may need a few extra chairs. So if 24 you could help my staff carry some in, that would be great, and 25 I'll see you in there in a few moments. Thanks.
